I regret to inform you I will no longer be able to organize and host this group. Our last event was held on March 28th.

I would like to thank all of you who have joined our Meet Up Group and who participated in the monthly events. It was a great pleasure to meet you!

For those of you who may want to stay in touch, you can contact me at jbonar@bonarinstitute.com. My regular articles on various aspects of leadership and coaching are posted on my website at www.bonarinstitute.com. If you wish, you can subscribe to them on the website.

Warm regards

James
